Class Assemblies

We will be starting our class assemblies next week on Tuesday 19th June. We hope you can join us to celebrate the work the children have been doing over the Summer term.

Assemblies start at 9am in the main hall.

Orange Class - 19th June Yellow Class - 26th June Red Class - 3rd July

Leavers Assembly, Blue & Green classes - 10th July

World Cup

To support England football team during the current World Cup tournament we would like all school (Key stage 1 and Foundation 1&2) to dress in either football kit or sports kit on Monday 18th June. This is just for fun and not a fundraising event!

Water Bottles

As you know children and adults should be drinking water throughout the day to stay healthy.

Please can we remind you not to fill bottles with dilute or juice.

Women's Rights March

On the back of the Newsletter is a piece of writing from one of our students. Poppy is extremely proud of taking part in the celebrations for 100 years of women having the right to vote.

Sports Days

We will be holding separate Foundation and Key stage one sports days again this year.

Instead of the traditional running races children will be participating in a variety of sporting activities. Provisional date, for years one and two, is 25th June in the afternoon. Foundation 2 (Reception) children will be 26th June in the morning, weather permitting. Foundation 1 (Nursery) will be 11th July, morning and afternoon.

Dates

Sports Day see above.

Summer Fayre - 9th July

New classes and reports will be sent out during the first week of July.

Year 2 transition to Juniors - W/C 16th July. More details will follow closer to the time.

Transition day for all other year groups is planned for 17th July.
